

• pathway to independence

Enabling people of all ages living with sight loss and a range of other disabilities to make informed choices about their future

