Easy Read

At

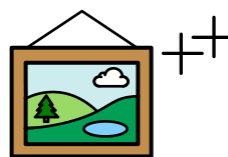

Henshaws

we

use

pictures

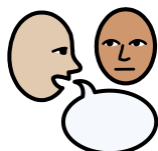

+

and

stories

to tell

people

what life

is like

for our

Artmakers

their families.

This

can inspire

them

to support

us

by raising money, or join

as an Artmaker.

When

the word

"you"

it's meant to encompass

both

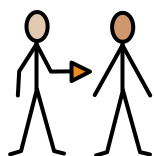

yourself

or the person

you

are supporting.

We

would

record

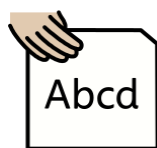

your

story

through

words,

photo,

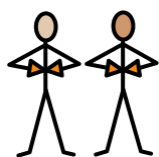

film,

or sound.

We

will not pay

you

this,

and

you

own

content

gathered.

Your

may contain

or

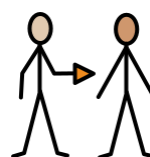

reference

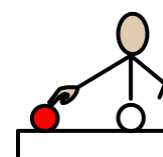

information

about

you

that

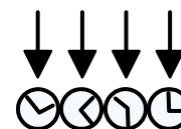

private,

is sensitive or

but you can always

tell

if there

is

information

you

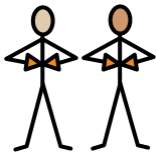

do not want

to share.

We

may

your

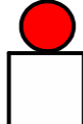

picture,

film,

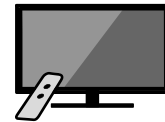

or story

on the internet,

television,

in newspapers,

fundraising

publications

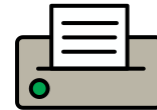

both

physical

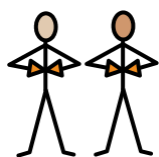

print

and

online.

might

not tell your story, or only

tell

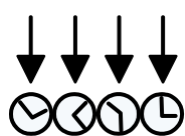

parts of it.

We

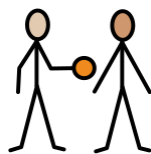

will

keep

your

information

in a safe

+

private

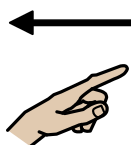

place.

If

you

have been

photographed

or

videoed, Henshaws

photograph

video

for

five years

from

time

it was taken.

However,

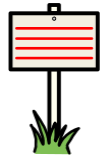

items

of

signage

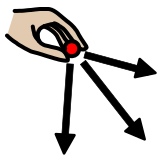

may

still be circulated

after

date,

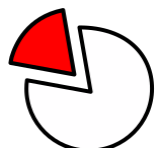

but

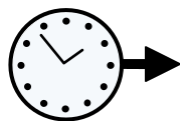

no

new

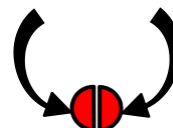

pieces

produced

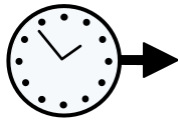

using

image.

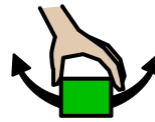

Henshaws

rarely

after

five years,

would

your

information

file

with restricted

access

for

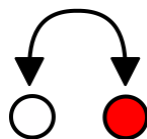

limited

situations

which

we

may

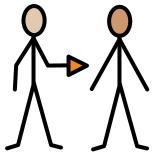

revisit

story.

If you are happy for us to use your story after five years, please choose the option opt in on this form.

When sharing photographs, videos and accompanying case-studies with external

keep

you

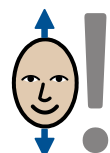

informed

sure

you

happy.

you

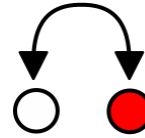

might

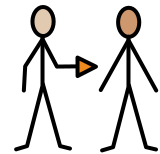

change your mind

you

are allowed to just

let us

know.
